

Honoring Arthur Raymon Thacker

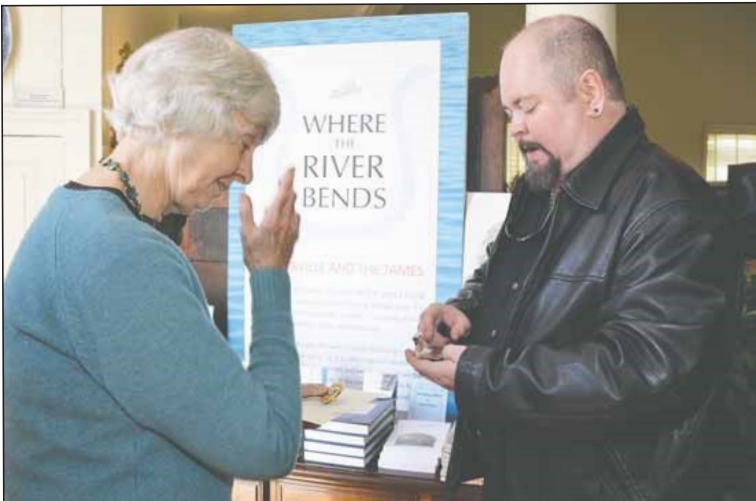

Matthew and Donna Thacker sitting in the front row and Arbutus Thacker sitting in the second row.

The Scottsville Museum will kicked off its 2018 season on Sunday April 8th at 2pm with the unveiling and reading of a proclamation honoring the late Mayor A. Raymon Thacker. The public was invited to join in this honor to our former mayor. Refreshments were served. Photos provided by Connie Geary.

Arbutus Thacker

The badge ID being shown by Matthew Thacker to Evelyn Edson.

People attending the museum Honoring the former mayor.

This photo of the tricorn hat, sitting right above the photo of Raymon all suited up in 18th century garb, is the same hat Raymon was wearing that day.

The badge belonged to Raymon and he received it as part of his ID as Mayor of Scottsville.